

Aaron Good, MS, CRC, LPC Registered Intern

1906 SW Madison St, Suite 301

Portland, OR 97205

503-997-1886

Philosophy and Approach: I take a humanistic approach to counseling, believing that we are all whole and sometimes just need a little help finding meaning and growth in the background noise of our fears and anxieties. I believe our relationship with nature can be as important as our relationship with people, and that all of these relationships can be understood in terms of systems of interaction.

Formal Education and Training: I hold a Master's Degree in Counseling from Portland State University. Major coursework included: human growth and development, counseling theory, ethics, disability, ecopsychology, and understanding human relationships. I have taken workshops on topics such as group facilitation and understanding oppression, and have completed ASIST training to assess suicidality.

As a Registered Intern of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I will abide by its Code of Ethics. I am under the ongoing supervision of Jennifer Moore, LPC, NCC, which I will be happy to explain.

Fees: My fee is $100 per 50 minute session. Payment is due before each session.
